Russians Turn to Iran in New ME Strategy

By K. C. THALER

LONDON (UP) — Russia has begun wooing Iran in a new Soviet strategy aimed at hitting the Baghdad Pact nations with a mixture of co-existence and infiltration, diplomatic sources said today.

They said Moscow switched its policy toward Iran, a Baghdad Pact member with Britain, Turkey, Iraq and Pakistan when it failed to intimidate the Iranian government with threats of force.

The sources said the danger to Iran no longer lies with the possibility of Soviet military intervention but with Russia's new offers of assistance and cooperation.

The Soviet Union now plans to help Iran build hydroelectric dams and irrigation plants in northern Iran.

Iran's ruler, Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi, announced Monday the settlement of Iran's disputes with Russia during recent months and hailed the inauguration of a new era of cooperation between the two nations.

But, the sources said, Iran left Moscow under no illusion over the prospects of Communist infiltration into the Iranian government. They said Iran made it clear to Moscow that its plans must remain non-political and that the Soviet offers of aid must be made without any strings attached.

They said Russia accepted the Iranian condition because it wanted a friendly rather than hostile Iran on its exposed soft underbelly.

But the diplomatic observers said Moscow still was tiding its time waiting for a chance to change its signals and move into Iran as it has moved into Syria.

Russia's policy in Iran parallels the latest Russian approaches to Turkey, which also is strategically close to Russia.

Reports from Istanbul said Russia was willing to "lend" Turkey $3 million dollars for industrial and economic growth. This offer was made only after previous Kremlin threats to Turkey which were ignored by the Turkish government.

Franchise of Ark-La Hiked by Council

Hope City Council in its final regular session took very little action on anything last night, passing many issues to the City Manager Board of Directors, which takes over the city government next week.

The Council did increase the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company franchise fee from $900 to $3,000. There was some discussion about raising the taxicab franchise fee of $20 per car but the matter was passed.

Also passed was a decision to purchase a new truck. Although bids were received they weren't opened, several councilmen feeling the "new government" should decide the matter. The resignation of H. B. Barr as a member of the Rose Hill Cemetery Association was also passed to the new board.

The group voted to employ J. W. Shirley as a policeman on a six months trial basis.

Last night was the time set for a hearing on the proposed $250,000 bond issue for Hope Water and Light plant improvements. There was no objection from any source.

NYF Plans Worship at Narrows Sunday

Members of the senior NYF of First Methodist Church will go to Narrows Lake, Sunday, August 25, for an outdoor worship and fellowship. The group will meet on the Second Street side of the Church at 1:45 a. m. Sunday. Each member is asked to bring $1.00 for food. Those making the trip are asked to call Anna Whitman at Susan Davis by noon Saturday.

Paul O'Neal and Mr. and Mrs. Kinard Young will accompany the group.

Fulbright Hits Ban on Travel in Red China

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark) says he considers the State Department ban on travel of U.S. newsmen to Communist China to be "a head-in-the-sand doctrine."

The senator made that comment yesterday when he introduced a resolution which he said was designed to make clear that it is the State Department's function to assist rather than hinder the travel of American reporters abroad.

The State Department has taken the position that the United States is still in "a quasi state of war" with Red China, and it has banned newsmen from traveling into that country.

The resolution offered by Fulbright would declare it to be the sense of the Senate that the secretary of state should use his office "to encourage and facilitate the entrance of bona fide representatives of newsgathering organizations into all countries of the world for the purpose of gathering news."

The resolution would not compel a policy change but would indicate Senate sentiment.

Fulbright said the travel ban denies even Congress information which might be helpful in policy making.

"It is, in short, a head-in-the-sand doctrine," Fulbright added, "with the Department of State not only burying its own head, but insisting that the people of the country to do the same."

Tabernacle to Take Part in Drive

The 27th biennial session of General Council of Assemblies of God will convene this year from August 28 through September 3 at Cleveland, Ohio. Using the theme, "World Evangelism Day," the Church gathers offerings for a missionary advance. The local Assembly of God Church, Hope Gospel Tabernacle, is happy to cooperate in this world evangelism drive, says the Rev. W. C. Land, pastor.

Massey Again Jumps at Chance to Play Lincoln

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — A strange thing has happened to Raymond Massey. Massey, a former tractor salesman who served as a soldier in two wars, also has achieved recognition as one of the nation's leading actors.

He has appeared in 60 motion pictures and 150 plays. All his life he has clung to one thesis about his profession — that an actor should never identify himself personally or emotionally with a role he plays, for if he does his performance will be poorer.

So what happens when awe-struck strangers meet Massey for the first time; they halt expect his first words of greetings will be "Four score and seven years ago."

For to millions, Massey is the man who took Abraham Lincoln off the penny and made him a living image again. To them he is Lincoln.

Denies Knowing Union Bought From Hoodlum

WASHINGTON (AP) — James R. Hoffa swore today he did not know that racketeer Paul (The Waiter) Ricca owned a Chicago mansion the Teamsters Union bought recently for $150,000.

"I don't believe it," Hoffa said. He had been asked whether he knew that Ricca owned the property, and that Ricca is "a notorious hoodlum, an old Capone mobster."

For the second day, the Midwest Teamsters Union boss was in the witness chair of the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee.

It is inquiring into his financial dealings and alleged associations with racketeers. Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) contends that Hoffa brought New York racketeer Johnny Dio and other underworld figures into the Teamsters Union and used them in a scheme to enhance his own power.

Ricca's name did not come into the hearings until Hoffa was asked by committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy about the purchase of the Chicago mansion.

Hoffa said Teamster Locals No. 239, to which he belongs, and No. 337, both of Detroit, put up the $150,000 to acquire the building in Chicago's outskirts. He said it is to be used as a training school for union officials who handle pension and welfare funds.

He said he knows the checks to buy the property were made out to a man named Paul DeLucia and disputed a contention by Kennedy that "DeLucia and Ricca are one and the same person."

Hoffa also told of a $75,000 Teamster loan to the Abstract and Title Guaranty Co., whose home address was not mentioned, to finance building construction projects. He said his lawyer, George Fitzgerald, is one of the owners of this company. Fitzgerald was seated beside Hoffa at the time.

McClellan told Hoffa the committee is exploring his investments only to determine whether there may have been a conflict of interest between Hoffa's duties as a union official and his dealings with persons and firms with whom the Teamsters Union had labor contracts.

Hoffa, Midwest boss of the Teamsters, is expected to be elected next month as president of the giant union.

He acknowledged borrowing between $120,000 and $130,000 since 1952.

The loans were shown to have come from fellow unionists, from Teamsters locals, from employers who had dealings with the union, and from men identified by Kennedy as having criminal records.

Two Injured in Accident on 67 East of Hope

Two men were injured, neither considered seriously, in a two-car accident late Tuesday afternoon on Highway 67 about three miles east of Hope.

E. J. Callicott, 35, Hope Rt. 2, an oil field worker, suffered lacerations about the head, a broken nose and rib injuries. He was taken to Memorial Hospital by an Oakcrest Ambulance for treatment and later released.

Also injured was Donald J. Moeller, 26, New Athens, Ill., who suffered lacerations on his head and knee.

State Patrolman Guy Downing said Callicott was driving over the center lane of the road. He was charged with driving on the wrong side of the highway. Both vehicles were badly damaged.

Parts of GOC Meet Here to Be Televised

Residents of this area are reminded of the citywide Ground Observer Corps meeting Friday, August 23, at Hempstead Court-house.

Principal speaker will be Captain Leon Patton, of the Shreveport Filter Center, who will outline the purpose of the organization and its meaning to national safety. A short film on atomic radiation will be shown.

Following the meeting, a benefit dance will be held in the National Guard Armory.

Today a local group, Don Oglesby, Penny Roberts, Shonon Roberts, Glenda Kelly, Bonnie Clark and Mrs. Doug Jester will go to Texarkana's radar station to advertise the meeting.

Doug Jester, GOC director here, announced that TV station KCMC-TV of Texarkana would take pictures of parts of the meeting and they will be televised later.

Faubus Will Go Along With AEA

By LEON HATCH
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval Faubus today said he would not interfere with the state Board of Education's decision on a site for a $500,000 vocational school authorized by the 1957 Legislature.

Faubus said he was misunderstood yesterday when he was quoted as saying that he favored Little Rock or Pine Bluff as locations for the school.

The governor said what he had intended to make clear was that those who sponsored the school in the Legislature meant for it to be placed in a reasonably central location.

Little Rock is in the approximate center of the state and Pine Bluff is only 45 miles from Little Rock.

Faubus said he had not intended to express a personal preference. He said today, however, he believed that the opinion of legislative sponsors should carry weight with the state board in its decision on a site.

The governor made his statements at a news conference shortly after he had received Rep. J. E. O'Daniel of Columbia County, who told newsmen before the conference with Faubus that he intended to plug for Magnolia as site for the school.

Pine Bluff, Magnolia and Camden are the three sites which the state Board of Education has inspected with a view to locating the school.

Faubus said afterward he would support whatever site is selected. He pointed out that the Legislature authorized several vocational schools although it appropriated funds for only one and said that if the initial school were successful, each congressional district eventually would have one.

Two House members said earlier today that unless the vocational school is located in Little Rock or Pine Bluff they will take legal steps to thwart the only setup until 1959.

Reps. John Bethel of Fayette County and Paul Van Dusen of Perry County made the statement. They called on Gov. Orval Faubus yesterday to protest what they termed a "cut and dried deal" to give the $500,000 institution to Magnolia.

Committee Cut $215 Million From AEC Fund

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee today slashed $215,000,000 from the Atomic Energy Commission's request for $2,465,025,000 for operating expenses and construction for the current fiscal year.

Much of the building program was authorized only yesterday in a 332-million-dollar AEC construction bill. Some of the cash goes into a new program of government-built power reactors opposed by the administration.

The reduction did not affect the AEC's raw materials, special nuclear materials, weapons and community operations programs. More than half of the cut was in the nature of a bookkeeping transaction.

If the House sustains the committee's recommendations during consideration of the AEC money bill later today, it will boost beyond $5,400,000,000 the total of House-voted cuts in regular appropriation requests for about 72 billion dollars in new appropriations in 1958.

The Senate has passed 13 of the bills, involving requests for about 64 billion dollars, and has imposed cuts totaling three billion. The House committee made relatively small reductions in the AEC request for new funds for physical research, reactor development, biology and medicine programs and program direction and administration.

The biggest cut, 157 million dollars, was effected by reducing from six to three months the pre-financing period for facility operating contracts. In past years the committee has permitted the AEC to finance these operations six months into the next fiscal year.

Another cut of 27 million dollars was made in the industry cooperative program for which the commission had requested 30 million dollars. The committee said projects in the third round of this program have not been specifically authorized. It emphasized that it favors the program and is willing to approve appropriations as soon as plans are more definite.

U. S. Payroll Slashed in Economy Push

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration is whacking away at the federal payroll and at far-flung government programs in an economy drive aimed at making a tax cut possible next year.

Government agencies are under orders not to fill any job vacancies caused by death, retirement or resignation without specific and prior approval.

They have been told too to cut spending by as much as a billion dollars below the $71,800,000,000 proposed for this year by President Eisenhower in his budget message to Congress. And the aim is to hold next years spending at or below the level of this year.

A top administration advisor said today, "We've had those things before but this time we really mean business. There is far too much fat, everywhere in the government. We're going to cut, cut, cut."

This jibed with an opinion expressed yesterday by Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), long-time economy advocate who was sharply critical in January when Eisenhower proposed a record peacetime spending budget.

Byrd said he sees signs that the administration is making an earnest effort to cut federal spending.

AHC to Discuss Financial Plight

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Highway Commission was to meet here this afternoon to take a look at the financial plight of the state Highway Department.

Harry W. Parkin of Little Rock, a member of the commission, said yesterday another meeting probably will be held soon after Sept. 1 when monthly financial reports will be available.

Parkin added that the commissioners have agreed to meet more often during the current financial crisis in order to keep up with the situation.

The commission has curtailed its summer road construction program because of a fund shortage. It has told contractors that they will be paid in full for road work until Sept. 15 but might have to accept partial payments after that date.

Gov. Orval Faubus was not decided whether to call a special legislative session to take up the highway financial dilemma.

BREAKS RECORD — This 280-foot balloon, carrying a 7-foot capsule, is floating toward Miles City, Montana, after rising from the bottom of an open-pit iron mine near Crosby, Minn. Manned by Maj. Doctor Elated With Success of His Flight

FREDRICK S. D. (UP) — An Air Force spokesman, who spent 32 hours exploring the edge of the stratosphere, emerged from his record flight, tired but thrilled, to have proved that man can exist in outer space.

Maj. David G. Simmons, 35, a balding Air Force doctor, returned his huge balloon safely to earth near Elm Lake in northern South Dakota at 4:28 p.m. yesterday. He had attained an altitude of more than 10 miles during his unprecedented flight.

An Air Force spokesman said Simmons' marathon voyage into the heavens showed that man can live and function for extended periods in outer space.

The space pioneer brought back a tale of being surrounded by a purple sky, even in the daytime, and of observing the stars glowing "like an animal's eyes."

But of even greater importance, Simmons proved that man can live for extended periods beyond the shackles of the earth's atmosphere. His ordeal was a major link in experimentation that may someday lead the way to space travel.

Howard Co. Queen Contest to Be Sept. 5

Fifteen Howard county beauties will compete Thursday, September 5, on the stage of the Elberta theater in Nashville for the title of Howard County Queen. She will then represent Howard county and Nashville at the Third District Livestock Show in Hope September 23.

The competition in Howard county is being handled by a committee from the Nashville Lions club, according to the Nashville News. The committee met last week with Cecil Callahan, manager of the Elberta theater, to prepare the list of competitors.

Entrants will be limited to 15. They will appear on the Elberta stage in formal evening wear and again in bathing suits — but there will be no talent contest.

Howard county contestants should notify Mrs. Edgar Branch at the Nashville Chamber of Commerce, according to the News' announcement. The first 15 Nashville merchants offering to sponsor girls will be given priority.

The announcement said, a merchant may select his own candidate if he chooses to do so but he still must clear the sponsorship through the chamber office.

Each county in the district handles the details of its own queen contest, but all contestants district-wide must be between the ages of 16 and 24, single — never married or divorced — and must reside in the county which they propose to represent at the Third District Livestock Show, September 23.

The cash prizes when the county winners meet in Hope "Will be: First place $100, second $50, third $25."

Nuclear Test Suspension Is Suggested

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today proposed a two-year suspension of nuclear tests, provided Russia agrees to an eventual permanent halt in production of atomic weapons materials.

Eisenhower said in a statement that Canada, France and Great Britain are joining this proposal in the United Nations disarmament subcommittee now meeting in London.

The plan "should be a major step toward reaching a sound and final agreement," Eisenhower said in making the proposal public.

Massey, when offstage, enjoys playing nobody other than Raymond Massey, an actor proud of his craft.

Over a plate of cold cuts, Massey took a few warm whiffs at what he considers wrong with the U. S. entertainment world.

"American acting, as exemplified by Marlon Brando, is the best in the world," he said. "But I think that some of his imitators represent the American theater at its worst."

"I don't believe in the modern theory of self-identification in the theater, and never have. I don't think you go to the theater to see yourself on the stage—you go to be entertained and I don't think the actor can identify himself in the role he plays."

"If he does, he can't be an actor. He's a dead duck. An actor portrays emotions in a role—he doesn't feel them."

"I think the theater is being betrayed. There used to be a relationship between the actor and audience that is being lost."

Today many of the kids don't care about the audience. They only want to have fun themselves. They'd just as soon act in a barn without an audience.

"They don't believe in striking sparks off each other, or sustaining a dramatic theme, or taking a human situation and making it understandable to an audience. Acting to them is merely a form of emotional self-gratification. That's wrong—when actors merely want to show off to each other and the director."

"They are fogged up with theories. They lack technique and experience. They don't even know how to speak a line loudly enough to be heard."

need the votes of at least three of the four republicans on the group. The remaining four committee members are Southern Democrats strongly opposed to any civil rights bill.

Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) said developments in the Rules Committee would show "where our Republican friends stand, whether they want to make any progress on this bill."

House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts commented, "I'm an old campaigner. If I want votes I'm looking for them. If he wants votes, let him come to me."

Martin said the Republicans have a proposal for a bill stronger than the one Democrats are willing to settle for. He said the GOP proposal could be passed by both House and Senate.

Martin said "the weather isn't right" for discussing the terms of the proposal, indicating he was waiting for a Democratic approach. He said he does not think President Eisenhower has seen the proposed compromise.

Accident Only Slowed Career of Pop Singer

By WILLIAM GLOVER
NEW YORK (AP)—Television has changed June Lockhart into somebody else.

The busy young dramatic star is, however, unworried and unscathed by her split-level self.

"TV just seems to see something in me that comes through when I'm not necessarily myself," she explains.

"It's a certain side of me, I guess—if you don't know my other side, the baggy pants comic side."

Miss Lockhart, who has roundly wide blue eyes and a flair for chic couture when herself, winds up in approximately four out of every five of her television dramatic appearances cast as a flat-heeled, middle-aged matron or spinster with sad problem.

But when she comes to Broadway or appears on the stock stage, June is invariably the ingenue of sleek comedy. Rarely do her acting personalities meet.

On a recent air appearance she managed to escape downbeat portrayal.

"One of my friends came to me afterwards and said, 'Gee, I didn't know you were such a comedienne,'" she relates without rancor.

Immediately afterwards, "she was back on U.S. Steel's drama hour as a bewildered schoolteacher. She has more battered portrayals in the immediate future.

"Most actresses, when offered an over-40, dull and drab role, shudder and say 'Not for me,'" says June who comes of a theater family.

"I just say 'how much are you paying' and do it."

The final element in her acceptance is a keen awareness of the importance of direction. Frequently, she says, she looks to see who the director will be before she reads the script.

To portray ladies beyond her own years, Miss Lockhart explains, the secret is mostly in what you do with your hair and your costume.

Always handling her own make-up, she never adds complex facial improvisation.

"The biggest thing of all is getting the right pair of health shoes," she says. "It's remarkable what a pair of flat shoes can do. They change the whole posture of your body and make you move and behave differently."

Track Her Down, Sherlock!
Nice Women Are Elusive

Dear Dorothy Dix: How can I go about finding a nice lady? I'm 46, not bad looking, have a good job, but I can't find a lady who will get interested in me. The only one who's attracted my attention is a woman 46 who is going with a man of 70. We go out together occasionally, but she won't consider giving the man up for me. Have you any suggestions?

JIMMY

Dear Jimmy: An able-bodied man of 46, and an engineer at that, should be able to track down his own wife. You'll have to do a bit of work, but isn't it worth it while nice women are elusive, but available. Ask yourself, what would a 40-45-year-old woman do for amusement? She'd probably attend church socials — the very best place to go looking for a wife. She'd be interested in civic affairs, associated with a charity organization or dabbling in oils as a hobbyist in painting pictures. All these are activities you would join, too. You won't find ladies in taverns. Don't any of your co-workers have eligible sisters or sisters-in-law at home? Come now, Jimmy, you're not half looking. Put a little initiative into the project. Let me know when you've found a good wife so I can send my congratulations.

Dear Dorothy Dix: A young man works in a store near me, and I'm sure he likes me but I think he's shy. Whenever I go into the store he looks at me with longing in his eyes.

B. G.

Dear B. G.: The young man undoubtedly is yearning — for a good smile! Don't read more than that into his looks.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My husband keeps 15 birds (in cages) in our small house which embarrasses our daughter. He has nowhere else to keep them and they are his hobby. Should he give them up or tell our daughter that it's his house and she'll have to adjust to it?

H. K.

Dear H. K.: If you don't object, I don't think anyone else should. Have father encourage daughter to take more interest in the birds and her prejudice will be overcome. Remind her, too, that not everyone likes her hobby — whatever it is, and it's probably rock 'n' roll records.

Dear Dorothy Dix: My boy friend and I are a couple of high-school kids. He's rather on the chubby side and my mother is constantly making fun of him. I can take a joke, but she carries it too far. How can I make her stop?

UNHAPPY

Dear Unhappy: Mother apparently belongs to the group that considers teen-agers are without feelings. If anyone kidded her about a particular frailty, she'd be up to a million with hurt feelings. Fool her; have your boy friend lose weight — it will do him good in many ways.

Challenge to Sovereignty Commission

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval Faubus and other members of the State Sovereignty Commission today were served with copies of a federal court suit challenging the constitutionality of four anti-integration acts of the 1957 Legislature.

The suit was filed Friday by 10 Negro ministers from several Arkansas cities.

Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, who also was served with a copy of the suit, said that he would file a petition later today seeking to stay the federal suit until a similar one in Pulaski Chancery Court is settled.

Faubus, after being served by U. S. Marshal Beal Kidd, said he probably would call a meeting of the Sovereignty Commission. The Commission—empowered by the Legislature to investigate pro-integration activities—has yet to hold its first meeting.

Kidd said his deputies were serving copies of the suit on the other members of the commission. They are Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon, House Speaker Glenn F. Walther, Sens. C. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs and C. F. (Rip) Smith of West Memphis; Reps. Talbot Field Jr., of Hempstead County, Lucien Rogers of Crittenden County and Winford Logan of Cleburne County; Dr. Joe Rushton of Magnolia, J. L. (Bex) Shaver of Wynne and Connie Fields of Shirley.

The four anti-integration acts set up the sovereignty commission, provided that no child would be compelled to attend an integrated school and gave school districts authority to employ counsel on integration matters with school funds and to determine — attend a new area.

Asked whether the Sovereignty Commission would attempt to function in face of the litigation, Faubus replied, "I might. That would be up to the commission."

Anderson Named Deputy Auditor
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—James D. Anderson, former White County representative and business manager at Boone Junior College, today was sworn in as deputy state auditor.

Anderson, 34, has been employed in the office since January 16, shortly after Auditor Jimmie Jones assumed office.

Television Has Changed June Lockhart

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"Do I pray Sure. But the best prayer is action, I think. And I'm going to continue working as hard as I can until I'm well again."

This is the vow of handsome, dark-haired Ronnie Deauville, who a year ago had a thriving career as a pop singer. Today he is confined to a wheelchair.

Life was a breeze for Ronnie until the morning of Oct. 2, 1956. He had built up a name as a vocalist with Tommy Dorsey, Glen Gray, Tex Benke and Ray Anthony. He signed with Mercury records and was making a go of it as a single. He had a lovely wife, Pat, and four children.

He was driving that morning after an early morning shower had damped Western Avenue. A couple of schoolboys were racing another car and it skidded and crashed head-on into Ronnie's car.

At first the doctor said Ronnie had a severe whiplash. The singer couldn't move his head.

A few days later, he couldn't move his legs. Then he had trouble breathing. Paralysis seemed to be creeping up on him. Unable to communicate with hospital attendants, he was about to give up the great struggle to breathe when his wife appeared and had him rushed to an iron lung. He stayed in the lung for five months.

"I tried to ponder why this had happened to me," he said. "Strange as it may sound, I concluded that it probably was a good thing."

"Now I've had a chance to realize how lucky I am. I know

Delay Asked in Suit for Integration

LITTLE ROCK (AP) Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett has entered the legal lists which may decide whether Arkansas goes ahead with limited public school integration this fall.

Bennett yesterday filed a motion in U. S. District Court asking that action be held up on a suit contesting the validity of four new state segregation acts until the Arkansas Supreme Court has passed on them.

The federal court suit was filed last week by 10 Negro ministers. Bennett asked that the suit be held in abeyance until the Supreme Court receives and rules on a Pulaski Chancery Court suit which seeks a decision on whether state or federal laws should be followed in the school integration question.

Bennett told the federal court that, as attorney general, he would intervene in the chancery suit in order to assert the validity of the Arkansas acts. The 1957 Legislature passed the four measures overwhelmingly.

The attorney general said he would try for an immediate hearing in the state case as a matter of great public importance.

William F. Rector, a Little Rock insurance man who has two school-age children, filed the chancery court suit. Rector said conflicting statutes were confusing and threatening even more what a wonderful wife I have, and I've gotten acquainted with my family. And I think I've gotten better acquainted with God."

"With God's help, I'll make it," he declared, speaking of rebuilding his career. "One of the things that has helped me is the good wishes of people I don't even know. One woman who had had 25 operations and faced another wrote me to keep up my spirit. Imagine!"

Gambling Charge Is Dropped

BENTON (AP)—A gambling charge against Charles H. Womack, who gained prominence a few months ago with accusations he made against Circuit Judge Ernest Maner, was dismissed today on a technicality.

Circuit Judge W. J. Waggoner of Lonoke, who heard the case in an exchange of circuits with Maner, said that Grand Jury Foreman Ernest J. Ward had failed to sign the true bill.

Prosecuting Attorney Henry B. Means of Malvern said that no further action would be taken in connection with the charge.

Womack had filed suit against Maner, charging that he paid money to Maner for "protection" in Saline County and seeking to recover the money. Maner subsequently was censured by the Arkansas Supreme Court.

first to greet the spaceman when he stepped uncertainly but unhurt from the small, aluminum gondola in which he had been sealed since Sunday night.

Simons, a native of Lancaster, Pa., smiled at them and asked:

"Hello, how are you where am I?"

A short time later, several Air Force planes and helicopters and private planes also landed in the flat field on the Fred Schense farm near here.

Musial Booming for His Seventh Batting Crown

By ED WILKS
Of The Associated Press

Stan Musial, who at 36 calls himself "just a struggling old man," is showing the kids how it's done as he goes for a seventh batting crown while keeping the St. Louis Cardinals alive in the National League race.

The Man, who last won the title in 1952 for a three-year run at the top, was 5-for-7, including a pair of home runs, as the Cards swept a two-night pair at New York with 4-3 and 3-2 victories.

That burst added six points to Musial's average and put him at .339 while his pursuers sagged. The Giants' Willie Mays was 2-for-7 for .327; Pittsburgh's Dick Groat was 0-for-4 for .327. Milwaukee Braves scored twice in the ninth and beat Pittsburgh 3-1. That left Milwaukee six games ahead of St. Louis.

Third-place Brooklyn, seven games back, took two from the Cincinnati Redlegs, winning 11-5 and 6-5, in 12 innings. The Chicago Cubs split a pair at Philadelphia winning 5-2, after a 2-1, 10-inning defeat.

In the American, Bob Keegan became the first Chicago pitcher to gain a no-hitter in 20 years, beating Washington 7-0 after the Senators had taken the first game of the two-night 5-4.

The New York Yankees were shut out for only the second time this season, 1-0 at Kansas City despite Bob Turley's two-hitter.

The AL bat race saw the leaders go hitless. Boston's Ted Williams stands at .3 after going 0-for-2 in a 5-4 Cleveland victory. Yankee Mickey Mantle, 0-for-4, is at .381.

Detroit defeated Baltimore 5-1 in the other AL games.

Musial's 28th homer, with a man on, bailed the Cards from behind in the ninth against Johnny Antonelli as Walker Cooper tripled and Don Blasingame singled. Bonus kid Von McDaniel won it.

Musial and Ken Beyer homered to get the Cards started in the opener, but it was Eddie Kascor's first major league home run that wrapped it up. It came with a man on off, losing reliever Jim Constable. Sam Jones won his 10th.

The Braves were held to three hits and an unearned run for eight innings by Vern Law, then went to work on reliever Luis Arroyo and Elroy Face as Red Schoendienst singled and scored the clincher on Ed Mathews' triple. Warren Spahn won his 15th with a seven-hitter.

Duke Snider, who had hit a three-run homer to open a five-run third in the opener, socked his 33rd home run for the Dodgers' nightcap clincher. Gil Hodges also homered in the second game for the Brooks with Don Drysdale.

winning is lit in relief, Jonny Klippstein lost it.

Hodges' BI single gave the Dodgers a 6-3 lead in the opener, but they then went on to add four in the eighth off Raul Sanchez. Ed Roebuck won with three-hit pitching in five relief innings and also hit first major league homer.

Keegan, a 30-year-old right-hander who has only an 8-6 record, walked two and struck out one while facing only 28 men. It was the first no-hitter of the year in the majors.

The Sox, who blew a 4-1 lead in the opener as Ed Fitz Gerald homered off reliever Jack Harshman to nail it for the Nats in the eighth, backed Keegan with five runs in the third inning, with Larry Doby's one-on homer capping the spurt.

Ex-Yankee Ralph Terry won his fourth while blanking New York on a six-hitter for the A's. Turley, 10-4, lost it in the fifth on a double by Woody Held, another former Yank, and a single by Tim Thompson.

Don Moss won his 10th for the Indians, rolling with a four-hitter until the Red Sox scored three in the ninth, that brought on Early Wynn. Gene Woodling drove in two runs with four hits, one a homer, as Tom Brewer lost it for a 14-10 record. Jim Piersall homered for Boston.

Jim Bunning won his 15th. Ray Boone drove in three runs for the Tigers with a home run and a triple.

Stan Lopata's home run won the opener for the Phils as Curt Simmons and relief winner Dick Farrell stopped the Cubs on three hits. Home runs by Ernie Banks and Jerry Khrdell won the nightcap as Robin Roberts lost his 17th.

Without my permission, and thereby broke the signed agreement that the Theatre-TV rights would not be sold without my written consent.

Robinson insists that the teleprompter corporation, which handles much industrial and convention closed-circuit work, be given the fight because it had guaranteed a minimum of 400,000 theatre seats, which would translate into about $250,000 for Robinson's end.

That's 150,000 more seats than TNT could guarantee, Robinson says.

Workers Escape, Train Hits Ties

CONWAY, Mo. — Fifteen railroad workers scrambled to safety as a fast-moving Missouri Pacific freight train bore down on them near here yesterday.

The train plowed into a mass of the replacement equipment, causing several thousand dollars in damages. No one was hurt. W. M. Yow of Russellville, crew foreman, said the engineer of the local freight apparently overlooked an order which specified the location of the crew.

The equipment, including several motor and push cars, was scattered for a quarter of a mile along the right of way. The accident occurred six miles south of here.

Board Soon to Decide School Location

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — The State Board of Education announced today it would "probably" make a decision on the location of the first state vocational-technical school at a meeting here next Tuesday.

The board also said it would "consider" a resolution passed Friday by the Legislative Council which, in effect, ordered the board to locate the school at Little Rock.

Education Commissioner Arch Ford announced the meeting before leaving today for Washington. He said the board had two items of business on its agenda. One is to consider the resolution passed by the Legislative Council. The other is to consider a location for the new institution.

"The board will probably make a final decision then," Ford said. Yesterday, the board members made a personal visit to Camden, Pine Bluff and Magnolia, the three sites selected as final contenders for the school, under a law enacted by the 1937 Legislature setting up one vocational-technical school in each Congressional district.

Friday, the Legislative Council approved a resolution by Reps. John Bell of Prairie County and Paul Van Dusen of Perry County.

Dealings Spurt on Stock Market

NEW YORK — Bulls and bears clashed head-on as stock market prices churned today in a climactic burst of dealings which delayed the high-speed ticker tape for 28 minutes.

A slight rallying tendency in the morning was cut short by a wave of offerings which battered down prices. After the initial shock of selling, however, resistance developed and buyers rushed into the market to stem the decline.

The net result early this afternoon was a mixed price pattern with gains and losses peppering many divisions. But the average of pivotal stocks was down.

ly, which said it was the "intent" of the Legislature that the first school be located in Little Rock.

The council members said to do otherwise would be a "clear violation" of the wishes of the legislature that created the schools and appropriated $500,000 to build the first one.

Several of the legislators said they believed the first school should be located where it could serve the most people at the earliest possible time and the only possible location to meet these objectives was Little Rock.

The board said the language of the law allowed it to make the final selection, but added it would consider the resolution before making its final choice.
